RE: James and Patricia Tarmann Vs. Duke Power, BellSouth,
And the South Carolina Public Service Commission.

To Whom It May Concern:

It should be noted for the record that no one represents me in the above mentioned complaint, but myself personally.

Furthermore, it should be noted for the record that I have not been contacted by the Office of Regulatory Staff, nor have I granted them the right to act on my behalf as my representative or agent legal or otherwise in the resolution of the above referenced matter. Any such acts to resolve this matter without my direct participation in the process and resolution will be a violation of my civil rights, and will be challenged.

As conveyed numerous times, I will not tolerate trespassing on my property without my explicit consent, and presents. All parties have now violated this right. Any information obtained, or acts committed while trespassing will be challenged.

As conveyed numerous times, I will not tolerate trespassing!

"See Attached Trespass Notice"

I am also fully aware of the slanderous remarks and acts against my character, that I am a threat to the health and welfare of the resolution of this complaint, and will be addressed in the near future, among other charges.

Sincerely,

James Tarmann
